

DAWSONS
SOLICITORS

Travel

Travel

Travel businesses operate in an extremely competitive environment and are constantly striving to adapt to market pressures and consumer demand. Behind the diverse range of innovative holiday products is a highly regulated and complex industry with unique operational and legal challenges.

At Dawsons, we understand the way in which the travel industry works. We have first hand experience of the issues of concern and provide creative solutions. We represent tour operators, travel agents, hotels, bedbanks, consolidators, trade associations, holiday clubs, car hire companies and numerous suppliers.

The Service

Dawsons provides a range of legal services to leaders of industry, entrepreneurs, private clients and businesses both in the UK and internationally.

Examples of recent travel work includes litigation between major on-line players, shareholder disputes, advice on pricing strategies, financial protection compliance, agent and principal status, health and safety liabilities and producing all types of commercial agreements.

Our charging rates are competitive and we believe in giving clients added value which comes from knowing the way in which the industry works and its players as well as providing a partner led and pro-active service.

Principal Areas of Work

We act for a broad spectrum of clients from household names to business start-ups. Services include:

- Commercial and consumer litigation
- Commercial contracts
- Corporate mergers and acquisitions, listings on UK and foreign stock exchanges
- Employment
- Regulatory advice
- Property

Contact

The Travel practice at Dawsons is led by Laura Harcombe, who is a recognised leader in her field and an expert in travel law by the legal directories. For further information on Laura, the firm and brief partner biographies visit www.dawsonslip.com. For further information contact:

Laura Harcombe Email: l.harcombe@dawsonslip.com Tel: +44(0)20 7421 4837