

DAWSONS
SOLICITORS

International

Clients increasingly rely on us to provide them with an international perspective in giving advice whether for corporate, dispute resolution, family, private client, employment or property matters. We assist a growing number of clients based worldwide in relation to their business and individual legal needs.

Dawsons is recommended by the Legal 500 for its "growing reputation in international work". A significant amount of Dawsons' work has an international dimension. The volume of international work is reflected in the significant number of lawyers at Dawsons with expertise, experience, qualifications and language skills in a host of international jurisdictions.

To further enhance the services that we offer our clients, we have a highly skilled network of law firms around the world which work with us. It means our services have a truly global reach.

- Our Corporate Commercial team has many years' experience of international work, spanning from cross-border mergers and acquisitions (M&A) and preparing foreign companies for listing on the London markets, to advising on international tax and corporate structuring, as well as all aspects of international commerce. It is recommended in the Legal 500 for M&A work.

- The Employment team is described as "first class" in the Legal 500 and advises clients from around the world, both employers and employees.
- The Family/Matrimonial team at Dawsons comes highly recommended for practitioners who have a "remarkable knowledge of foreign jurisdictions" (Chambers UK). Highly experienced in global matters, we offer expertise in everything from drafting international prenuptial agreements and 'jurisdiction shopping', to representing clients in contested proceedings and negotiating agreements involving international assets.

- Rated "particularly highly" for our "incredibly good disputes work", our Litigation/Dispute Resolution team provides clients with a top quality international dispute resolution service. We have extensive knowledge and experience of handling cross-border commercial disputes and international commercial arbitration and of dealing with disputes over which jurisdiction should apply to any dispute.
- Our Private Client team has particular expertise in providing international tax planning advice to UK resident but non-domiciled individuals, as well as individuals who have relocated to the UK. The team also assists with issues such as personal tax and succession planning, trusts and foundations.
- Real Estate is integral to many businesses as well as those who wish to acquire, manage or develop a house, apartment or an entire commercial or residential property portfolio in England. Our Property team acts for a huge range of clients, based at home and abroad. Expertise includes development, portfolio management, landlord and tenant, residential (including leasehold enfranchisement) and property tax. Members of the team are recommended in both the Legal 500 and Chambers UK.

Our service is led by partners supported by specialist lawyers throughout the firm to provide advice at the right level at the right time. It is a personal, responsive, cost effective and creative service.

In addition to our own international expertise, we are also members of a number of international organisations, including the following:

- London Court of International Arbitration
- International Bar Association
- International Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers.
- Russian Chamber of Commerce
- Chambers of Commerce in various European countries.
